26 March 2023
The Fifth Sunday of Lent

Readings for this Sunday: Ezekiel 37.1-14; Romans 8.6-11 ; John 11.1-45

Collect for this Sunday

Most merciful God, who by the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ delivered and saved the world: grant that by faith in him who suffered on the cross we may triumph in the power of his victory; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Post Communion Prayer for this Sunday

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us that what we do for the least of our brothers and sisters we do also for you: give us the will to be the servant of others as you were the servant of all, and gave up your life and died for us, but are alive and reign, now and for ever.

Amen

Psalm130 - Waiting for Divine Redemption

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord.

Lord, hear my voice!

Let your ears be attentive

to the voice of my supplications!

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities,

Lord, who could stand?

But there is forgiveness with you,

so that you may be revered.

I wait for the Lord, my soul waits,

and in his word I hope;

my soul waits for the Lord

more than those who watch for the morning,
more than those who watch for the morning.

O Israel, hope in the Lord!

For with the Lord there is steadfast love,
and with him is great power to redeem.

It is he who will redeem Israel
from all its iniquities.

Mothering Sunday

Readings for this Sunday

Exodus 2.1-10

Colossians 3.12-17

John 19.25b-27

Psalm 34.11-20

Praise for Deliverance from Trouble

Come, O children, listen to me;
I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

Which of you desires life,
and covets many days to enjoy good?

Keep your tongue from evil,
and your lips from speaking deceit.

Depart from evil, and do good;
seek peace, and pursue it.

The eyes of the Lord are on the righteous,
and his ears are open to their cry.

The face of the Lord is against evildoers, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

When the righteous cry for help, the Lord hears,
and rescues them from all their troubles.

The Lord is near to the broken-hearted,
and saves the crushed in spirit.

Many are the afflictions of the righteous,
but the Lord rescues them from them all.

He keeps all their bones;
not one of them will be broken.

Collect for this Sunday

God of compassion, whose Son Jesus Christ, the child of Mary, shared the life of a home in Nazareth, and on the cross drew the whole human family to himself: strengthen us in our daily living that in joy and in sorrow we may know the power of your presence to bind together and to heal; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Post Communion Prayer for this Sunday

Loving God, as a mother feeds her children at the breast you feed us in this sacrament with the food and drink of eternal life: help us who have tasted your goodness to grow in grace within the household of faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Chrism Eucharist—Tuesday 4 April at 11am, Lincoln Cathedral

This service takes place annually, during which the oils for baptism, confirmation and anointing to be used during the year will be blessed.

All clergy are invited to attend, and an invitation is extended to all members of their congregations as an opportunity for the laity to show their support for their clergy, and for all to be reminded that the call to be the people of God is given to us all.

Tea and coffee will be available after the service.

If you would like to attend, please let Neil know by Wednesday 22 March, so that he can let the Bishop's Office know.

Reflections for Lent - Responding to God in prayer and prophecy

“Ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it.” – John 14:14

What is your experience or understanding of prayer and prophecy? How are they linked?

- The Bible is meant to be prayed and lived, not just read and understood
- When we read the Bible, we're invited into conversation and prayer is our response
- Our prayer lives are at their best not when we talk to God about big things occasionally, but little things continuously

This week: Practise regular prayer and listening to God by setting aside 15 minutes each day to pause, pray, and listen. You might like to pray intentionally for the same thing every day, or choose different things to pray for.

Each time you pray, also spend a moment in silence, welcoming God's presence and asking if there's anything God wants to say about the situation, person or people you're praying for.
