

Have you come to church and forgotten to bring cash for the collection?

Fortunately this need not be a problem if the service is at Haconby, Kirkby Underwood or Morton as they all have online giving pages.

How do I access these pages?

- Use your phone and go to the group website, www.ringstonegroupchurches.org
- Go to the dark blue box on the home page and select the name of the church
- Follow the instructions online and select one of the set amounts, or choose your own amount
- Enter your card details (you may have these already saved on your phone)
- ALL DONE

If this seems too tricky, you can always make a payment from your PC, laptop or tablet when you get home.

EVEN EASIER Morton now has a card reader, so you can donate to the collection using your card or payment app on your phone.

If you already use the online giving pages, thank you for your generosity, and please spread the word as to how easy it is now to give to your church.

Guests from Ukraine

I am hopeful that very shortly I will be welcoming two guests from Ukraine who have had to flee from their homes because of the war.

Anastasiya has had to leave her home in Kyiv and Liudmyla, her home in Chernihiv due to Russian shelling. They are currently in a hostel Kraków Poland and, as soon as the government paperwork is sorted out, they will fly to the UK and will be staying here in the Vicarage.

Please keep Anastasiya & Liudmyla in your prayers as they prepare to take this next step and pray also for the family that they have left behind in Ukraine who are either unable or unwilling to leave their homes. I trust that Anastasiya & Liudmyla will receive a warm welcome when they arrive.

Then the righteous will answer him, "Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?" And the king will answer them, "Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me." (Matt25.37-49)

Easter Day

Psalm 118.1-2,14-24 - A Song of Victory

O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his steadfast love endures for ever! Let Israel say, 'His steadfast love endures for ever.' The Lord is my strength and my might; he has become my salvation. There are glad songs of victory in the tents of the righteous: 'The right hand of the Lord does valiantly; the right hand of the Lord is exalted; the right hand of the Lord does valiantly.' I shall not die, but I shall live, and recount the deeds of the Lord. The Lord has punished me severely,	but he did not give me over to death. Open to me the gates of righteousness, that I may enter through them and give thanks to the Lord. This is the gate of the Lord; the righteous shall enter through it. I thank you that you have answered me and have become my salvation. The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone. This is the Lord's doing; it is marvellous in our eyes. This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Collect and Post Communion Prayer for this Sunday

Collect

Lord of all life and power, who through the mighty resurrection of your Son overcame the old order of sin and death to make all things new in him: grant that we, being dead to sin and alive to you in Jesus Christ, may reign with him in glory; to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be praise and honour, glory and might, now and in all eternity. Amen.

Post Communion Prayer

God of Life, who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection have delivered us from the power of our enemy: grant us so to die daily to sin, that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his risen life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

From today's Acts of the Apostles reading

[Peter said to the people] We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem.

Acts 10.39a

Reflection

In the early church the word "witness" was the same as "martyr." To give public witness to Christ means to be willing to suffer for our faith. From the earliest times to this day compelling witnesses have shown that people not only profess their faith in Christ and his resurrection in words but are also prepared to live their faith – even die for it.

So, we ask ourselves

- ✚ Where am I called to be a "witness" for Christ?
- ✚ What does it cost me to be that witness?
